1. Motorists are respectful of my presence, (ex: yield to me at intersections, drive at a safe speed, look before turning or exiting a driveway, etc.)
Notes:
2. I feel visible and safe from harassment while walking along this segment of Broad Street:
Notes:
3. The sidewalks are well-maintained, smooth, and wide enough to walk comfortably alongside another person:
Notes:
4. Intersection design elements (ramps, signals, crosswalks, curb extensions, etc.) are present and make me feel safe while crossing the street:
Notes:
5. The street contains a consistent and interesting mix of buildings with active fronts, and a variety of destinations that invite walking:
