COLONEL URBANO PRIGNANO, JR.

CHIEF OF POLICE

January 29th, 1998

GENERAL ORDER # 6
Series of 1998

To: Commanding Officers:

The purpose of this directive is to set forth the policy regarding changes in an officer's assignment and the return of specialized department issued uniforms and equipment.

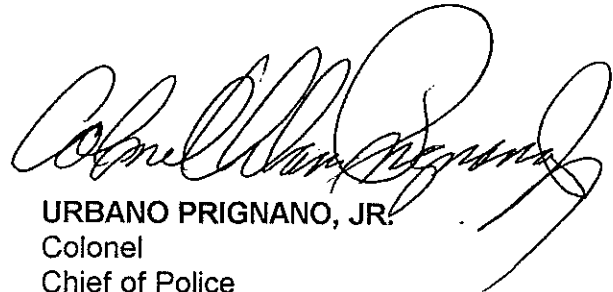

Effective immediately, officers will turn specialized uniforms and equipment over to the Human Resource Bureau upon a change in assignment. In addition, all officers who have been reassigned and who have in their possession specialized uniforms or equipment no longer required for their current assignment will turn the equipment in to the Human Resource Bureau.

Commanding officers are to ensure that members of their command comply with this General Order. In addition, commanding officers will provide the Human Resource Bureau with an official notification in writing of the name of any officer whose status changes from nights to days or who are reassigned within the Department.

APPROVED:

JOHN J. PARTINGTON
Commissioner of Public Safety
