BID PACKAGE SPECIFICATIONS

City of Providence Emergency Food Planning and Food Security Prioritization Process

The City of Providence Healthy Communities Office seeks proposals for the creation of a City of Providence Emergency and Food Security Plan. The resulting product will include a) identification of immediate food needs to be funded in 2023 b) an action plan to be implemented immediately in case of a weather, public health, public safety or other emergency that impacts immediate food access for Providence residents, and c) prioritization of activities to address structural gaps in Providence's food security landscape (e.g. production, transportation, storage, distribution etc). The plan and the process to create it will focus on equity in addressing the emergency food needs and long-term food security of vulnerable and hard-to-reach populations including specific communities of color, new immigrants and refugees, individuals experiencing homelessness, and elders. Provision of culturally and religiously appropriate foods will be included in the equity considerations. Proposals will be accepted for a maximum of $125,000.

The contracted work is anticipated to begin on 12/1/2022 with final products delivered by 7/31/2023.

This project will be funded by American Rescue Plan Act dollars.

Background:

The City of Providence Healthy Communities Office (HCO) is the lead agency for health promotion and substance use disorder prevention within the administration of the City of Providence.

Typical emergency preparedness plans assume a window of 72 hours of need, in case of power outages, unpassable roads or other acute issues. The COVID-19 pandemic presented long-term challenges that required innovative, flexible and multi-layered strategies. At the onset of the COVID-19 Pandemic, HCO coordinated the City's emergency food distribution efforts in partnership with the Providence Emergency Management Agency (PEMA), Providence Public Schools and an ad-hoc network of institutions, churches and other partners. Through this system, over 1M meals were distributed to the Providence community between March and September 2020. These meals ranged from MREs to frozen prepared meals to bags of groceries and locally-grown produce. Distribution methods included delivery of frozen meals by church volunteers, parent pick-up of multi-day meal packs for school children from outdoor sites at public schools, delivery of meals to home-bound students by Recreation Department staff and vehicles, distribution of grocery bags and recipes for complete meals from a local co-op to families at the Recreation Centers, direct delivery from local farmers' markets to refugee families, and distribution of Kosher/Halal meals at a local synagogue. Populations reached included residents of elder high-rises, school children, refugees and church communities.

Despite the successes of the food distribution effort, the nature of the emergency and lack of an existing plan resulted in inefficiencies and inequities. Some food donations were difficult or infeasible to manage because of lack of refrigeration, storage and transportation; adhering to food safety within existing infrastructure constraints limited options; there was no existing guidance for how resources available through large institutions could be activated to serve the community's needs; individuals disconnected from agencies that had existing relationships with the City of Providence were unlikely to receive foods. In many cases, it was discovered that the distribution effort was addressing families' long-standing food security challenges rather than any emergency caused specifically by the Pandemic.

HCO seeks services to develop an emergency food distribution plan to address immediate and ongoing impacts of the current COVID-19 crisis and enact in the case of future emergencies. The plan will establish key partnerships and networks for equitable and efficient distribution of food in the case of emergencies, identify ongoing emergency needs caused by or amplified by the current Pandemic, and will include identification of weaknesses in Providence's food security landscape and recommendations for strengthening food security throughout the city. As appropriate, may reference and incorporate existing templates and guidance for emergency response such as the National Mass Care Strategy (<https://nationalmasscarestrategy.org/nmcs-resource-center/nmcs-feeding/>).

Scope of Work:

1. Convene key partners (including Providence Emergency Management Agency, key City and State offices, local nutrition safety net agencies and others) as the Providence Emergency Food Planning Work Group to inform and direct the development of a City of Providence Emergency Food Security Plan
2. Assess and make recommendations from the City of Providence's 3-9/2020 distribution experience
 - a. Review and summarize existing data and documentation of food distribution efforts led by the City of Providence or in which the City was a key partner

3. Identify and make recommendations from nationwide COVID-19 emergency food distribution models (e.g Montgomery County Md.)
4. Assess and identify gaps and priorities for action in improving existing storage and distribution infrastructure in city-owned or controlled properties (e.g. refrigeration, dry storage, transportation)
5. Assess and identify action steps for development of labor infrastructure to be mobilized in case of emergency, including but not limited to volunteer structure (churches/community organizations/other volunteers) and City employees

CITY OF PROVIDENCE STANDARD TERMS & CONDITIONS

CITY OF PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

1. The terms “you” and “your” contained herein refer to the person or entity that is a party to the agreement with the City of Providence (“the City”) and to such person’s or entity’s employees, officers, and agents.
2. The Request For Proposals (“RFP”) and these Standard Terms and Conditions together constitute the entire agreement of the parties (“the Agreement”) with regard to any and all matters. By your submission of a bid proposal or response to the City’s RFP, you accept these Standard Terms & Conditions and agree that they supersede any conflicting provisions provided by bid or in any terms and conditions contained or linked within a bid and/or response. Changes in the terms and conditions of the Agreement, or the scope of work thereunder, may only be made by a writing signed by the parties.
3. You are an independent contractor and in no way does this Agreement render you an employee or agent of the City or entitle you to fringe benefits, workers’ compensation, pension obligations, retirement or any other employment benefits. The City shall not deduct federal or state income taxes, social security or Medicare withholdings, or any other taxes required to be deducted by an employer, and this is your responsibility to yourself and your employees and agents.
4. You shall not assign your rights and obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the City. Any assignment without prior written consent of the City shall be voidable at the election of the City. The City retains the right to refuse any and all assignments in the City’s sole and absolute discretion.
5. Invoices submitted to the City shall be payable sixty (60) days from the time of receipt by the City. Invoices shall include support documentation necessary to evidence completion of the work being invoiced. The City may request any other reasonable documentation in support of an invoice. The time for payment shall not commence, and invoices shall not be processed for payment, until you provide reasonably sufficient support documentation. In no circumstances shall the City be obligated to pay or shall you be entitled to receive interest on any overdue invoice or payment. In no circumstances shall the City be obligated to pay any costs associated with your collection of an outstanding invoice.
6. For contracts involving construction, alteration, and/or repair work, the provisions of applicable state labor law concerning payment of prevailing wage rates (R.I. Gen. Laws §§ 37-13-1 et seq., as amended) and the City’s First Source Ordinance (Providence Code of Ordinances §§ 21-91 et seq., as amended) apply.
7. With regard to any issues, claims, or controversies that may arise under this Agreement, the City shall not be required to submit to dispute resolution or mandatory/binding arbitration. Nothing prevents the parties from mutually agreeing to settle any disputes using mediation or non-binding arbitration.
8. To the fullest extent permitted by law, you shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the City, its employees, officers, agents, and assigns from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, allegations, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, obligations, fines, penalties, judgments, liabilities, costs and expenses, including but not limited to attorneys’ fees, of any nature whatsoever arising out of, in connection with, or resulting from the performance of the work provided in the Agreement.
9. You shall maintain throughout the term of this Agreement the insurance coverage that is required by the RFP or, if none is required in the RFP, insurance coverage that is considered in your industry to be commercially reasonable, and you agree to name the City as an additional insured on your general liability policy and on any umbrella policy you carry.
10. The City shall not subject itself to any contractual limitations on liability. The City shall have the time permitted within the applicable statute of limitations, and no less, to bring or assert any and all causes of action, suits, claims or demands the City may have arising out of, in connection with, or resulting from the performance of the work provided in the Agreement, and in no event does the City agree to limit your liability to the price of the Agreement or any other monetary limit.
11. The City may terminate this Agreement upon five (5) days’ written notice to you if you fail to observe any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or if the City believes your ability to perform the terms and conditions of this Agreement has been materially impaired in any way, including but in no way limited to loss of insurance coverage, lapsing of

12. Written notice hereunder shall be deemed to have been duly served if delivered in person to the individual or member of the firm or entity or to an officer of the entity for whom it was intended, or if delivered at or sent by registered or certified mail to the last business address known by the party providing notice.
 13. In no event shall the Agreement automatically renew or be extended without a writing signed by the parties.
 14. You agree that products produced or resulting from the performance of the Agreement are the sole property of the City and may not be used by you without the express written permission of the City.
 15. For any Agreement involving the sharing or exchange of data involving potentially confidential and/or personal information, you shall comply with any and all state and/or federal laws or regulations applicable to confidential and/or personal information you receive from the City, including but not limited to the Rhode Island Identity Theft Protection Act, R.I. Gen. Laws § 11-49.3-1, during the term of the Agreement. You shall implement and maintain appropriate physical, technical, and administrative security measures for the protection of, and to prevent access to, use, or disclosure of, confidential and/or personal information. In the event of a breach of such information, you shall notify the City of such breach immediately, but in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours after discovery of such breach.
 16. The Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Rhode Island. You expressly submit yourself to and agree that any and all actions arising out of, in connection with, or resulting from the performance of the Agreement or relationship between the parties shall occur solely in the venue and jurisdiction of the State of Rhode Island or the federal court located in Rhode Island.
 17. The failure of the City to require performance of any provision shall not affect the City's right to require performance at any time thereafter, nor shall a waiver of any breach or default of this Agreement constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default or a waiver of the provision itself.
 18. If any term or provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall, in any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
